Import permit must be applied for at the same place that issues the work permit. Shipper must obtain import permit themselves. 2. Customs clearance: 2-3 working days for air; 3-5 working days for sea, assuming all documents are available and in order. Assume all shipments will be physically inspected. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Shippers are allowed to import 2 shipments (1 sea + 1 air) and the shipments must be registered under the same import permit. ▪ Duty is charged on items purchased within the past 12 months, including furniture, electrical appliances, and other major items. Invoices may help establish purchase date for Brunei duty purposes. ▪ Brunei Customs will assess import duty on dutiable items. Ask your agent in Brunei for an estimate which will be based on the packing / survey list, however be guided by the following - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Furniture: at 5% - 10% of assessed value. ○ Golf clubs, lamps, light fixtures, electrical items, etc., at 20% of assessed value. ○ A detailed declaration of all assessable items (e.g., a PC will require the size of the monitor, a fridge will require the volume capacity, etc.) is required. ▪ Clients may bring in small amounts (< 5 kgs) of dried (only) food with the sea shipment, but it may delay customs so it is recommended not to do so. ▪ For all items: Only a reasonable quantity for personal use and consumption is allowed. Excess amounts may trigger closer customs inspection, the need for written explanation, documentation, etc. Diplomatic shipment: Please note a returning Brunei Darussalam diplomat will no longer enjoy the diplomatic privileges on Custom clearing.
